Human Rights Policy

Respect for Human Rights

Respect for human rights is a fundamental value of FIM P&R NV.

We strive to respect and promote human rights in accordance with the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights in our relationships with our employees, suppliers and potentially affected groups.

Our aim is to help increase the enjoyment of human rights within the communities in which we operate.

This Policy is guided by international human rights principles encompassed by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, including those contained within the International Bill of Rights and the International Labor Organization's 1998 Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

Where national law and these international human rights standards differ, FIM P&R NV will follow the higher standard; where they are in conflict, FIM P&R NV must seek to respect internationally recognized human rights to the greatest extent possible.

This policy applies to FIM P&R NV, the entities that we own, the entities in which we hold a majority interest and the facilities that we manage. We will adhere to every aspect described in this policy. The Company also expects suppliers to uphold these principles and urges them to adopt similar policies within their own businesses.

We constantly observe the human rights risks to people in our business and value chain. Where we have identified adverse human rights impacts resulting from or caused by our business activities, we are committed to provide for or cooperate in, their fair and equitable remediation. We seek to promote access to remediation where we are linked to or involved in those adverse impacts through our relationships with third parties.

The Human Rights Policy is overseen by the owners of FIM P&R NV.

Community and Stakeholder Engagement

We recognize that we are part of the communities in which we operate. We engage with communities on human rights matters that are important to them such as land rights, access to water and health. We also engage with people in those communities, including indigenous peoples as well as other vulnerable and disadvantaged groups. Our aim is to ensure through dialogue that we are listening to, learning from and considering their views as we conduct our business. We believe that local issues are most appropriately addressed at the local level. Where appropriate, we engage with a wide range of civil society and stakeholders on human rights issues related to our business. This includes issues in our Company, across our value chain and with our various sponsorships, through which we seek to promote respect for human rights.

Diversity and Inclusion

We value and advance the diversity and inclusion of the people with whom we work. We are committed to equal opportunity and are intolerant of discrimination and harassment. We work to maintain workplaces that are free from discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, sex, color, national or social origin, ethnicity, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identification or expression, political opinion or any other status protected by applicable law. The basis for recruitment, hiring, placement, development, training, compensation and advancement at the Company is qualifications, performance, skills and experience.

We do not tolerate disrespectful or inappropriate behaviour, unfair treatment or retaliation of any kind. Harassment is not tolerated in the workplace and in any work-related circumstance outside the workplace.

Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining

We respect our employees' right to join, form or not to join a labour union without fear of reprisal, intimidation or harassment. Where employees are represented by a legally recognized union, we are committed to establishing a constructive dialogue with their freely chosen representatives. The Company is committed to bargaining in good faith with such representatives.

Safe and Healthy Workplace

The safety and health of our employees is of paramount importance. Our policy is to provide a safe and healthy workplace and comply with applicable safety and health laws and regulations, as well as internal requirements. We work to provide and maintain a safe, healthy and productive workplace, in consultation with our employees, by addressing and remediating identified risks of accidents, injury and health impacts.

Workplace Security

We are committed to maintaining a workplace that is free from violence, harassment, intimidation and other unsafe or disruptive conditions due to internal and external threats. Security safeguards for employees are provided, as needed, and are maintained with respect for employee privacy and dignity.

Employees have access to water, sanitation and hygiene.

Employees are informed about the measures to be taken in case of emergency.

In case of use of hazardous materials, employees are informed and have handling procedures and safety instructions available.

Management systems that address health and safety risks are in place : “veiligheids adviseur level 3” and contract for support from an external advisor “veiligheids adviseur”

The plant is situated in a building with appropriate construction, electrical equipment and fire safety.

Forced Labour and Human Trafficking

We prohibit the use of all forms of forced labour, including prison labour, indentured labour, bonded labour, military labour, modern forms of slavery and any form of human trafficking.

Child Labour

We prohibit the hiring of individuals that are under 18 years of age for positions in which hazardous work is required.

Work Hours, Wages and Benefits

We compensate employees competitively relative to the industry and local labor market, and in accordance with terms of applicable collective bargaining agreements. We work to ensure full compliance with applicable wage, work hours and overtime laws.

Land Rights and Water Resources

We recognize the significant implications regarding respect for human rights that land use and water use across our value chain may have, which we address through specific policy and action.

Guidance and Reporting for Employees

We strive to create workplaces in which open and honest communications among all employees are valued and respected. The Company is committed to comply with applicable labor and employment laws wherever we operate. The Company also ensures employees are aware of the Human Rights Policy through training and an annual certification process.

Any employee who believes a conflict arises between the language of the policy and the laws, customs and practices of the place where he or she works, or who has questions about this policy or would like to confidentially report a potential violation of this policy, should raise those questions and concerns with management or Human Resources. The Company will investigate, address and respond to the concerns of employees and will take appropriate corrective action in response to any violation.
